Rangoli is an Indian art where different colours are used to create decorative patterns on the floor at the entrance of homes. Keeping this in mind, Sanskruti School of Dance, Cambridge brings to you a colorful evening of Bharatanatyam- an ancient Indian dance form originating from the temples of South India. Just as a Rangoli is created with a combination of different colours and shades to form a creative design, this evening's program is also designed such that all the aspects of Bharatanatyam come together to form a Rangoli.

Come and enjoy this evening of Bharatanatyam at Manor Community College, Arbury Road, Cambridge, CB4 2JF on Saturday, November 7, 2009. The Deputy Mayor, Councillor Sheila Stuart will grace this occasion as the Guest of Honour.

This is a free event open to everyone except for the seating limitation of 300. All guests are requested to please be seated in the auditorium by 4:45 pm for the program to commence at 5 pm.
